

Architectural Intern

jobcode US030
New York City

We are seeking a bilingual English-German speaker with an architectural education to assist in all phases of project delivery in our office, including proposal writing, preliminary design research, who would be able to participate in the following:

office organization pr & marketing schematic design project development design development

At the internship level, the intern would participate in other phases but exposure would be focused on early stages of architectural project development.
Minimum length: 6 months, 12 months preferred Internship full-time but we can only offer a minimal monthly stipend, depending on the intern's experience level

Required knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite applications, Autocad