Jobcode UK006

We are the leading custom publisher with offices in London, New York, Chicago and San Diego. We specialise in producing high-end publications for international clients and our expertise is in the complete process: from initial concept through to the finished publication. Our publications are very varied.

Our Editorial Department is based in the central London office. This is a small department of 8-12 people, comprising editors, sub editors, designers, ad production and an editorial co-ordinator.

The company which was founded 20 years ago, is involved with every stage of the publishing process to ensure that the standards that have been set are achieved. A dedicated team of people who are experts in their market run each magazine.

Interns who pass through our Editorial Department are given periods of help and instruction on a regular basis so that, at the end of their time here, they have genuinely gained an insight into magazines.
