

Internship for Marketing/Administrative

New York City
Jobcode US027

We are an e-commerce start-up that has developed an automated trading site where everyone can trade anything of value to anyone else. The Web site will support trading in goods, services, and the use of real estate. The site is in alpha testing and is rapidly approaching its public launch. We are seeking Internet savvy, self-motivated individuals who are willing to work hard, but who will have the opportunity to learn in a unique entrepreneurial environment.

Internship duration is minimum 3 months and can begin immediately. Please contact us as soon as possible if interested because we actually need somebody within the next 3 weeks.

We offer various job internships to students.

- Marketing Assistant
- Administrative Assistant

Good English Skills

MS Office Skills

Ability to work independently

Organizing ability