

Internship in Marketing, PR & Event

jobcode US041

New York City

We are a non-profit organization founded in 2001 by cultural and community groups to establish and advance the East 4th Street Cultural District, between 2nd Avenue and Bowery. We provide a variety of services to its member organizations including leading the development and conversion of 100,000 square feet of cultural space, marketing and promotion of the district, as well as offering discount ticketing and other community events and programs.

Now we are seeking college juniors and seniors or recent graduates for year-round internships. Interns must have familiarity with Microsoft Word, Excel, and Powerpoint. Interns are sought for the following areas - support and organization of our visual art initiatives, social media marketing, dance program and restaurant partnerships. All interns will gain experience in social media management, team building, community partnerships, and non-profit arts administration. Project can be tailored to an interns' interest, however our office is a holistic environments where everyone has input on all projects and is expected to work on all projects. Internship periods are flexible, ranging from 3 months to 1 year.
