

Multimedia & Graphic Designer

Exeter, UK
jobcode UK024

This Erasmus/Leonardo internship would suit a talented graphic design student or graduate, looking to work on a variety of multimedia & graphic design projects.

Overall purpose of the internship:

You will be working closely with the marketing and technical teams to gather requirements and feedback for different design projects.

Primarily, this internship will involve:

- Produce and animations and tutorial videos
- Add new content and designs to existing web site
- Design icons for new software tools
- Design artwork for advertisements, presentations, etc.

Knowledge, experience, skills, and competencies:

- Graduate or student in graphic, web or multimedia design
- Experienced and confident with design packages, e.g. Quark, Publisher, Scribus, Photoshop, Illustrator, Inkscape, Maya, 3D studio, etc.
- Experienced and confident with web design and programming tools, e.g. Dreamweaver, Eclipse, Flash, Flex, HTML, CSS, Java Script, PHP and MySQL, etc.
- Knowledge of Linux (shell commands and package installation) an advantage
- Good English communication skills
- High enthusiasm and drive coupled with good interpersonal skills
- Ability to work in a flexible environment
- Self-motivated and able to work on own initiative whilst being a team player

Further information:

Start date: as soon as possible

Duration: 6-12 months

Financial contribution: £350 on top of Leonardo/Erasmus grant

Please note that this is an EU Erasmus/Leonardo internship. Only apply if you are eligible to receive Erasmus/Leonardo funding.