

Praktikum im Bereich Personal/ Ambulante Krankenpflege
Naples, Florida
jobcode US050

We are a Home Care Agency, we provide Assistance Services for Seniors. Our caregivers are Homemakers/Companions/ Home Health Aides, Certified Nursing Assistants, Licensed Practical Nurses and Registered Nurses.

Most of our clients are in their 80's and 90's and require assistance in their homes, whether it is just light housekeeping, grocery shopping or driving them to doctor's appointments. Some of our clients need help with activities of daily living such as assistance with bathing, dressing, toileting, grooming and eating.

We are looking to hire an intern to assist us in our Fort Myers/Naples office. Job duties include supporting the hiring process of new hires, co-ordinating and scheduling existing caregivers, communicate with clients and provide general office support. If necessary we will provide training to obtain a certified nursing assistance license.

Our office hours are from monday to friday with a rotating on call schedule on weekends.

The ideal candidate has experience in Human Resources/Personel Management,/Customer Service.

The internship is subject to a work permit and can start any time after April 1, 2012
